

How Do I Want to FEEL in My Room?

by Jill Keller Peters

How do I want to feel in my room?

I want to feel like I'm in a place that is full of sunlight and happy conversation.

I want to feel soothed, like I'm watching a sail boat cutting into the breeze.

I want to feel expansion,
like I'm diving into a sunset.

Jill Keller Peters   St Tropez - oil on canvas, 20" x 20"

I want to get lost in inspiration.

Jill Keller Peters Chapel Window - oil on canvas, 40"x 20"

I want to feel the timeless memory of spending a whole day in the woods.

I want to feel the breath of the sea.

Jill Keller Peters   Goat Rock - oil on panel, 8" x 10"

Hi There!

Thank you for ordering my little e-booklet of paintings!

The intention of this book is to help you expand your thinking about what you may want in a painting, beyond décor. It is to help you determine if you want to feel more peace and vibrancy or a combination of many feelings.

Color is a big component, as well as atmosphere and, of course, design.

I help clients who really want to create an oasis of peace and beauty in their home in a world that can be stressful and challenging.

Thank you for signing up for the Studio Art letter! Let's keep in touch.

Jill Keller Peters

jillkellerpeters.com